O2E CHARITY SUPPORTS FREDDIE FARMER FOUNDATION FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The Freddie Farmer Foundation is celebrating after a surprise pledge of support.

Ordinary to Extraordinary (o2e) has elected to support the Freddie Farmer Foundation for another year as one of its supported charities of 2017.

o2e has supported the Freddie Farmer Foundation since 2014, and in the last three years, has donated a jaw-dropping £117,000!

The o2e charity raised the funds by taking individuals and groups on Challenges that take them out of their comfort zone and achieve something amazing, like a 5k run or crossing the Alps.

Karen Smith, charity officer at Freddie Farmer Foundation, said: "I was delighted when I heard we were chosen as one of o2e's chosen charities for another year.

"I'd just like to say a huge thank you to everyone at o2e who ran, walked, climbed, trekked, cycled and kayaked their way to supporting us. It's so appreciated and will go a long way to enabling us to continue our important work, supporting disabled children."

Sparkle, Stepping Stones, CASPA, Cyclists Fighting Cancer (CFC) and ELHAP (special needs adventure playground), will also benefit.

o2e aims to make a difference to the lives of seriously and terminally ill children, whilst encouraging and supporting all ages to embrace sport and adventure, get out of their comfort zones and live life to the full.
